

Arts-Centred Learning Program

Is Arts-Centred Learning the Right Choice for My Child?

A successful student demonstrates:

- an interest in and passion for the arts
- initiative, imagination and ingenuity when engaging in a variety of creative processes to develop and explore ideas
- the ability to thrive in a fast-paced rigorous program that extends beyond the basic curricular expectation
- a willingness to take advantage of multiple learning opportunities offered through the arts
- characteristics that honour and respect the creativity of peers
- motivation and independence
- the ability to work well in a variety of situations; collaboratively and independently

Characteristics of Arts-Centred Learning

- Arts-focused inquiry integrating Alberta Education’s Programs of Study
- Opportunities for co-constructing knowledge and understanding through the arts
- Develop creative and critical thinking
- Learning comes from the process as well as the product
- Students represent their knowledge and understanding through the multiple perspectives found throughout the arts
- Students learn to appreciate and critique their art and the art of others
- Skill development in the arts is integrated throughout the curriculum using school and community resources
