CBE Indigenous Family Resource Guide

This resource guide is designed to support Indigenous students and families within the Calgary Board of Education. It provides access to Indigenous-focused supports and resources, helping families navigate available services. Grounded in the Indigenous Education Holistic Lifelong Learning Framework, this guide reflects our commitment to holistic support for self-identified Indigenous students.

The CBE Indigenous Family Resource Guide can be used in addition to the CBE Family Resource Guide which provides a broad range of services, including food, housing, financial aid, and mental health resources.

The CBE Indigenous Family Resource Guide is not an exhaustive resource list, please note it will be revised bi-annually.

For families who need further guidance on available supports, 211 Alberta is a 24/7, free, confidential service which connects individuals with thousands of programs, including Indigenous-specific supports for housing, food security, crisis services, and more. By calling 211 or visiting their website, you can get real-time assistance in finding the most relevant resources for Indigenous students and families.

If you are experiencing an emergency, please call 911.

If you have any questions about this guide, please email us at IndigenousEducation@cbe.ab.ca
