For Immediate Release

CALGARY — Media are invited to attend a briefing about assessment and reporting for the 2014-15 school year. With K-9 report cards on their way home to families in December and January, the CBE would like to share information about what students and parents can expect.

While the report card is not new for the majority of K-9 schools this year, it is the first time that all K-9 schools will be releasing report cards with a consistent format.

Media will have the opportunity to interview an area director and principals at this briefing.
